LORI SPIESS

CEO, VirtualOffiCenters

virtualofficenters.com

Lori Spiess owns and operates five award-winning, hybrid co-working and business center locations in the Minneapolis area under OffiCenters and VirtualOffiCenters, which she first launched in 1981. The office spaces offer people a variety of office solutions to create their business strategies, and are designed to support home-based businesses — and help them grow. In 2013 OffiCenters and VirtualOffiCenters were named the Most Innovative Workspaces by the Global Workspace Association. Known as a leader in her industry, Spiess was also awarded the WINspiration Award by the Women in Networking Twin Cities in 2012.
